CLUB MARVY

IZMIR, TURKEY

This beautiful, all-inclusive resort ticks all the boxes for families but with a serious dose of boho chic. Activities include sailing lessons and a waterpark while adult-only areas are reserved for restful relaxation. Marvy also has its own organic farm and vineyards, and a restaurant by Michelin-starred chef Christina Bowerman. Add in an infinity pool, art gallery, and a spa in dramatic cliff-top cabanas and the whole thing is simply marvellous.

BOOK IT: Doubles from £126.

BORGO EGNAZIA

ITALY

One of the prettiest hotels in the Med, this dreamy idyll on the Puglian coast is a place where parents can holiday off-duty. There's a drop-in kids club with cooking classes, puppet shows, trips to the farm, as well as a family pool and two private beaches. Six restaurants are smart with an emphasis on local cooking, bedrooms are high contemporary design. There are also umbilically attached villas – clever, so too the Vair Spa for deliciously intuitive treatments.

BOOK IT: Rooms from €269 B&B.
